

The Citizen of to-Morrow: A Handbook on Social Questions (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Citizen of to-Morrow: A Handbook on Social Questions The volume has been prepared at the request of the Council of the Wesleyan Methodist Union for Social Service, and is published for it; but the Union itself is not thereby committed to any particular views expressed or reforms advocated by the individual writers. Nevertheless, the book does, inasmuch as it is written by some of the leading members of the Union, indicate its general attitude towards social problems, and therefore may be taken as its manifesto - a manifesto issued by it in the very first year of its existence. Each writer in the volume has enjoyed the utmost freedom of expression. The chapters are printed practically in the form in which they left the writers hands. No attempt has been made by the editor either to tone down statements or to secure uniformity of literary style. Readers are asked, therefore, to bear with varieties both of view and of modes of expression which would not appear in a book coming from any one hand or from under a rigid editorship. Doubtless they will find compensations. In addition, a certain amount of over-lapping will be detected, which could not be obviated if clearness and comparative completeness were to be secured. But, even when facts are repeated and subjects are retouched, it will be found that they are looked at from another angle and in a new light.
