

Connal

A New York Times Bestselling Author Connal Tremayne lived in torment since he lost his wife in a tragic accident. On the anniversary of that date, he drank to drown the remorse and Pepi Mathews, the daughter of his boss, wanted to help him. However, the young woman had expected to follow him to a bar in Mexico City, and instead he took her to a chapel and asked her to marry him. Pepi played along, feeling safe that the marriage certificate would not be valid in the U.S., but on the following day, she was going to discover that their union was perfectly legal . . .
