

Fear Not! Courage for Every Challenge

Have you ever wondered if fear has caused you to miss something important? Somewhere deep in your heart do you long for more from life but you have felt afraid, tormented or intimidated to go for it? In this insightful, heartfelt book Daniel walks you through some key areas of life where you can regroup and reclaim what fear has stolen from you. Written from the perspective of someone who has learned to face many fears; fear of lack, fear of people, fear of failure, fear of family responsibility, this penetrating, yet easily readable book will help you identify fear and the places it has wounded you. In this book you can find hope for a fearless life, where there is abundant courage for every challenge. I completely recommend this book and expect it to radically change lives!
