

Magic in Her Touch

Mina Poole left home at eighteen, never to return. Never is a long time, and when she finds herself back in Lewistown, Indiana her mother insists that she bind herself to a stranger in the name of duty. Mina scoffs at her mothers plans, and rushes into the arms of a beautiful, brawling woman at the local bar. Shes the baddest witch in town... Darby Guerin hustles pool, gets in bar fights, and wears the mantle of black sheep and screw-up with pride. No way will she consent to an arranged marriage with some debutante from a rival witch family just to satisfy her mother. A night of passion with a beautiful stranger is more her speed. Her one night stand gets complicated when sparks fly and Darby cant stop thinking about Mina. Whats a little danger between lovers? Necessity forces the two women even tighter together to help rescue a friend. As their lives intertwine, their hearts collide and bind them together more tightly than their families could dream.
