

Imperfections

Jade Connors is lost. She's broken inside, unhappy in her marriage, and feeling disconnected to her baby. She descends from two generations of women who have struggled with love, loss, and feelings of being misunderstood and misplaced within their own life. Jade's grandmother, Angie Roberts, understands her all too well and she will stop at nothing to help her see the error of her ways before it's too late and she misses out on being a part of her child's life. But, ultimately, it is Jade's decision and one choice sets the tone for this story. Imperfections illustrates how pain and struggles form us, but do not have to define us.
