

Reconsidering Womens History: Twenty years of the Womens History Network

Deriving from the 20th Anniversary Womens History Network Conference entitled 20 Years of the Womens History Network: Looking Back Looking Forward, this volume reflects on the state of womens and gender history as well as showcasing the diversity of the current field. The range of contributions is broad and stimulating, covering such themes as transnational movements, gender and space, sexualities, motherhood, and women in politics. Together, the interdisciplinary chapters reflect the rich diversity of current womens history and historiography, and will offer important insight to students and scholars researching the past, present and future of feminist studies. This book was originally published as a special issue of Womens History Review.
