

TimeOut for Holiness at Work

As Christian believers, we are often faced with the challenge of doing the right thing in the workplace when so many around us display dishonesty, cut-throat ruthlessness, and doing whatever it takes for political gain. Is it possible to maintain a high moral standard and be successful in this environment? TimeOut for Holiness at Work examines areas of the workplace where it is possible to still do the right thing and win. Group discussions include the following topics: Gaining and Maintaining Respect, Working with Difficult People, Handling Office Politics, Making Wise Decisions, Becoming a Positive Problem-solver, and Preparing for Promotion. Designed as a lunch-time or after-work Bible study, this is the perfect activity for co-workers to experience together!
