

Just the Essentials

A sweet and clean summer romance Kinsleys summer is for writing. She doesnt need a guy. Not one. Except maybe Jack... A dilapidated cabin in the remote Colorado woods is not where twenty-year-old Kinsley would have chosen to recover from being dumped by her longtime boyfriend. But thats exactly where she finds herself. The Cons: The cabin currently has no electricity, cell phone service, Internet, running water, or heat. Also, an unknown wild creature appears to have made its home in the front room, and theres likely something scary living under the ageing deck. The Pros: Theres only one, and its Jack the local handyman Kinsleys father hired to fix up the place. Jack with the sparkling hazel eyes and wicked smirk. Jack, whos just the kind of summer distraction Kinsley needs... Jack, who flirts like a pro but refuses to indulge in a summer fling. Kinsley has three months to change his mind, but is it enough time? And can she keep things light when her heart is telling her Jacks not fling material. He just might be something a little more essential...
