

Library of Christian Cooperation (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Library of Christian Cooperation
The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in Japan, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and the Federated Missions of Japan have been for several years cultivating a relationship of mutual esteem and practical cooperation. It was, therefore, natural that American missionaries in Japan should express to the American Federal Council their concern regarding relationships between the two nations. The procedure leading up to the appointment of the commission was as follows: About the Publisher
