

Love, Life and Death on Tarawong

A devastating flood prompts Rebecca Bradleys return to her childhood home, Tarawong, a merino sheep property in the Southern Highlands of New South Wales, that has been in the Bradley family for four generations. Rebecca narrates to her children life growing up on an isolated property in the 1970s. Rebecca has a loving family with a close bond to her father who she has a dream to assist manage Tarawong in the future. The arrival of nineteen-year-old shearer, Luke Hunter, has heartbreaking consequences that shatter Rebeccas dreams as her future on Tarawong becomes uncertain.
