

First Lady: An Old School Love

First Lady (an old school love) is a novel about romance behind the scenes of the political and business world. This story is told through the eyes and experiences of Carmen Nelson. Carmen is a woman who has worked very close with several political and business men only to get trapped by love with a married man. She was so blind by love until she did not see the corruption that surrounded the political and business world. Now that these things have come to her attention, how does she deal with the foolishness of it all? Although this is a story of fiction, it leaves the mind to wonder; How many situations like this actually exist? This is a must read novel that will open your eyes to the auspicious behaviors that may truly exist in the political and business world.
