

Loves Grateful Striving: A Commentary on Kierkegaards Works of Love

Soren Kierkegaards Works of Love (1847), a series of deliberations on the commandment to love ones neighbor, has often been condemned by critics. Here, Ferreira seeks to rehabilitate Works of Love as one of Kierkegaards most important works. He shows that Kierkegaards deliberations on love are highly relevant to some important themes in contemporary ethics, including impartiality, duty, equality, mutuality, reciprocity, self-love, sympathy, and sacrifice. Ferreira also argues that Works of Love bears on issues peculiar to a religious ethic, such as the role of God as middle term, and the possibility of preserving the aesthetic dimensions of love in a religious ethic of relation.
