

The American Conference on International Arbitration: Held in Washington D. C. April 22 and 23, 1896 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The American Conference on International Arbitration: Held in Washington D. C. April 22 and 23, 1896 Meantime, from Great Britain came tidings that the people of that country had already taken independent action in the same direction. The advance on that side of the water has been as positive and as great as on this side. In this regard, the desires and purposes of the two great English-speaking peoples are manifestly akin.
