

Gods Kingdom and Gods Son: The Background to Marks Christology from Concepts of Kingship in the Psalms (Arbeiten Zur Geschichte Des Antiken Judentums Und Des Urchristentums, 50)

How is the kingdom of God related to Messianic kingship (or divine sonship)? Starting from what he terms a two-tier kingship in the Psalms, Robert Rowe explores the linkage of these terms in Marks gospel. The linked concepts - Gods kingship and Davidic (Messianic) kingship - are traced from the Psalms and Isaiah 40-66, through the Dead Sea Scrolls and other inter-testamental documents, into Marks gospel. Marks characterization of Jesus as Messiah is shown to centre around four royal Psalms (2; 22; 110; 118). Contributing to the continuing study of the Old Testament in the New, Rowe argues that the concepts of Gods kingdom and the Messiah are inherently closely related. This has importance both for the study of the historical Jesus, and for Marks presentation of God and Jesus in his gospel.
