

The Love You Had At First

The Love You Had At First is written for those that deeply desire to live a life well pleasing to God. We trace the beginnings of the church at Ephesus from her infancy into her prime years only to discover that she had left her first love. Jesus addressed Ephesus first in Revelation 2 because love is the most important issue of all. Faith, hope and love now remain; but the greatest of these is love (1 Cor. 13). Pleasing God means we love God with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength and our neighbor as ourselves. In an age where the emphasis of mainstream Christianity seems to be on all kinds of subjects, this book seeks to turn our attention back to this essential truth in the genuine article. More than anything else, God wants us to love Him with all of our being and to love our neighbor as ourselves. What does that mean? How can we get there? If we fail in this regard, everything else is utterly meaningless. Join us as we discover the insightful history of how Ephesus began in love, was built up in love, left her first love- repented and rediscovered her first love.
