

The Change-Up

Would you sacrifice everything for love even if it meant losing it all? College baseball coach, Sawyer Evans, has almost everything she could have wanted. She's coaching one of the best Division II teams in the South. She started a successful training program for female athletes. The only regret in life is her baseball career ending after high school. Bellamy Carter is a successful accountant with her own firm, a beautiful home, and a son she adores. For most of Kevin's life, it has been just the two of them facing the world, which leaves little time for Bellamy to miss being loved. When Sawyer comes to town to scout Kevin for a spot on the Statesmen's roster, she turns their world upside-down. It isn't long before Bellamy realizes that she can't ignore Sawyer's presence in her tidy life. When tragedy strikes, Bellamy is forced to question everything she believes about life, love, and faith, leaving her wondering if she will make it out the other side.
