

The Loves of Calter Creek

Three Full-Length Books for One Low Price Amanda Sinclair has it all or has she? She may be the highly successful president of Sinclair Imports, but old fears keep her from risking relationships. Widower Jacob McKinnons priority is to protect his six-year-old daughter, but hes ready to risk his heart again. Their attraction sizzles, for all that she doesnt want it except that she obviously does. When a threat to Sinclair Imports arises, she needs Jacobs accounting expertise and his emotional support. But how can she work with him, lean on him, and still keep their undeniable attraction at bay? Pat Fraser knows better than to trust Alan Carmichael. In fact, she cant stand the man. Hes cold, with his eye on the main chance, and readily admits hes not interested in an amusing dalliance, not a long term relationship. But she has no choice but to work with him, because otherwise the mall hes building could be the stuff of nightmares for her quiet neighborhood. Its merely unfortunate that hes also the most alluring man Pats met in years. Will Pat be able to see the man behind the mask? Can a boy and a dog crack open Alans frozen heart? Mel Chesterton is sunshine personified, but lately the gloss seems to have gone out of her life. That is, until she meets the man of her dreams. Ryan Pope is everything shes ever dreamed of, and he feels the same about her. On top of that, she has a new best friend, Adrian Forsythe, who is renovating the old bookstore in downtown Calter Creek. Her mornings with Adrian, working with him on the bookstore, are times of enchantment, while her love affair with Ryan is well, maybe not as perfect as it should be? Inevitably, Mel is faced with a choice: everything she ever wanted or something she never dreamed of.
