

The Man Who Could Not Kill Enough: Secret Murders of Jeffrey Dahmer

This book tells how an astounding midnight phone call from a Milwaukee police contact was to give local crime reporter Anne Schwartz the scoop of a lifetime: first-hand involvement from the start in the horrifying case of the cannibal serial killer, Jeffrey Dahmer. From her own direct experience, Schwartz here tells the whole story - from the gruesome discovery of human remains in Dahmer's apartment, through the course of the police investigation, to the trial and eventual sentencing of Dahmer to fifteen life sentences.
