

Marriages: The Power of Love in a MARRIAGE: A Guide to what is in a MARRIAGE

Traditional marriages keep spouses in a circle. It is difficult to explain to a traditional husband or wife of a modern marriage. The different beliefs keep people apart and from recent observations I discovered the hardship of a traditional marriage. To a modern lifestyle the traditional marriage appears wrong or inappropriate. The way you look at such marriages allows for a better understanding of that culture. You don't always see the marriage the way persons involved see their marriage. The days are long passed whereby a woman is held back from enjoying her life as a mother or wife. Age has got nothing to do with the way she lives life. The old-fashioned ones live by the age. In this strategy the traditional way of life is a must for too many marriages. Village life is traditional and unique. A traditional woman is to marry and raise a family. A guide to married life, in the modern way and in the traditional way.
