

Things I Have Not Learned

The old saying goes: Experience is the best teacher. It is also the hardest one. In this work, Dr. Ruckman will give you some practical life lessons he has learned from listening to and observing others. These are all things he did not have to learn by experience, yet are invaluable for the believer in order to fulfill Gods purpose for his life. While most of the material is not Scripture, it is full of good common sense and sound advice that is Scriptural. This is excellent reading for any young person starting out on lifes journey.(Print Length: 56 pages)
