

Veterans Day: Darien, Connecticut: A Time-Line Journal of World War II and Our Lives At Home.

A Time-Line, Date-Line Journal of World War II documenting the major political decisions and military encounters during this horrendous World War. Sixty Million military and civilians died during the 8 years of merciless massacre. 130 countries were embroiled in this two-ocean, two-hemisphere conflict between the Allies - the United States, England, France, Russia and others - and the Axis - Germany, Japan, Italy and others. This Journal is organized in an easy-study report format detailing the what, the when, the where and the how - the who and the why are obvious. The Journal also includes a complete study of our lives at home when 130 Million Americans showed true-grit and total patriotism. During this war we had our admired people and our shared, at-home events to distract us; the movies, best selling novels, favorite radio programs and awe-inspiring songs. All of them the sensational hits of the late 30s and early 40s. Its all here.
